GEN. WOOD FOR RESTORATION OF CANTEEN

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 17.—Major General Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the army, favors the restoration of the canteen to army posts. He declares in his annual report that the consensus of opinion in the army is that the canteen should be reestablished.

General Wood also makes some recommendations for the garrisoning of Panama Canal forts. He says it is necessary to provide garrisons to protect the canal and to insure its neutrality, and for that he recommends 12 companies of coast artillery, four regiments of infantry of full strength, one battalion of field artillery, one squadron of cavalry and some auxiliary troops.

In recommending short-term enlistments the chief of staff says the argument that men would not return to the colors in time of war is "an unwarrantable reflection on the patriotism of men who have served the colors and returned to private life."

General Wood opposed the bill pending in Congress which would consolidate the adjutant and inspector general's departments with the general staff corps. He favors a consolidation, but not in the way proposed. He takes the position that great care should be taken to prevent and person or persons from becoming permanent members of the general staff corps. The detail system, General Wood declares, is one of the essential features of the efficiency of the general staff.

HOME OF KING'S DAUGHTERS

One of the old men, Theodore H. Boehme, 83 years of age and totally deaf, fought under Grant and has vivid recollections of the part he played in Sherman's famous march to the sea. He is a graduate of a German college, Jena, in Saxony. The German Benevolent Society is particularly interested in his case.

Mr. William Young, another inmate, was formerly British consul to the island of Tahiti for twelve years. He is 86 years of age.

All of these interesting people are living in the past, when they were actively about life's work. When you visit the home they love to entertain you with stories of their achievements, and instead of being bored, as would probably be the case were your informant a member of the younger generation, you are completely fascinated.

Often it is said the inmates forget to be grateful for present favors, but as a rule they can not but remember the struggles of later years and rest content in the thought that a good home has been provided for them for as long as they shall live.

As a philanthropic institution the King's Daughters' Home is among the most worthy in Hawaii, and as a haven of rest for worthy aged people it is the center of much heart interest.

In this year of the Dickens revival it is interesting to know that the children of Dickens and Thackeray are as good friends as their fathers were. At a garden party given a few months ago by Lady Ritchie, the daughter of Thackeray and the editor of Cornhill's Magazine, Mrs. Perugini, who was Kate Dickens, helped in the reception. Thackeray wrote "Katherine's Lantern" to her when she was a little girl. Lady Harcourt, daughter of Motley, was one of the women who assisted Lady Ritchie. This is also the Thackeray centenary.

FOLKS PAST FIFTY MUST USE CASCARETS

What glasses are to weak eyes, Cascarets are to weak bowels—a 10-cent box will truly amaze you.

Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles.

So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

PURE FOOD LAWS PUT BAN ON ABSINTHE

BY C. S. ALBERT.

(Special Bulletin Correspondence.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 15.—The lover of absinthe traps must prepare to become resigned and accommodate himself to some other tipple. The Pure Food Board of the Department of Agriculture has decreed that no longer may the insidious French intoxicant be imported into this country. An order has been issued to make effective the conclusions reached. The action was taken after long and thorough investigation. The decision declares:

"It is well recognized in all countries that have had experience therewith that the use of the beverage known as absinthe is dangerous to health."

Dr. Wiley, head of the board, expressed the opinion that "absinthe is one of the worst enemies of man, and if we can keep the people of the United States from becoming slaves to this demon we will do it." Under the food and drugs act the importation is forbidden of any food or drug "of a kind forbidden entry into or forbidden to be sold or restricted in sale in the country in which it is made or from which it is imported." Under this authority the board acted. Belgium and Switzerland have forbidden the manufacture of absinthe and France has instituted rigid regulations over its manufacture and sale.

DOROTHY ARNOLD PROBABLY DEAD

NEW YORK, N. Y., Dec. 11.—Miss Dorothy Arnold, whose mysterious disappearance from her home here puzzled the police of two continents, will have been missing one year tomorrow. She was last seen on December 12, 1910.

Miss Arnold's absence was made public first on January 26, and since that time many reports of her death, her appearance in other cities here and in Europe, and of her return home have kept the public in a state of wonderment. The situation after a year's search is thus summed up by Attorney John S. Keith, the Arnolds' legal representative:

"Since the morning when Miss Arnold left the home of her parents, not one word has ever been received from her, nor have we or anyone else, who aided in the world-wide search, been able to find a single clue as to what became of her. The family and also myself believe she is dead, for that is the only explanation that we can conceive."
